

Reinhart Enterprises aims to provide efficient, detailed landscaping

by KEATON T. DEPRIEST Associate Editor

Nick Reinhart, a 2005 graduate of Amherst Central High School, recently started a landscaping company, Reinhart Enterprises. The business offers lawn maintenance and snow removal and plowing in addition to tree and stump removal, lawn aearating and other services. The company has customers in Amherst, Williamsville, Clarence and Tonawanda. After working with several professional landscaping companies since he was a teenager, Nick Reinhart decided it was time for him to operate his own business. In 2011, he created Reinhart Enterprises, a landscaping company servicing residents in the Amherst, Williamsville, Clarence and Tonawanda communities.

“I really just got the business started a few months ago, and things are going really well,” he said. “Although I just started the business, I have been working with landscaping since high school.”

He said the company’s mission is to provide customers with fast, efficient service in various landscaping capacities.

Services offered by Reinhart Enterprises include:

- Lawn maintenance and snow removal and plowing.
- Seeding and sodding, tree and shrub trimming
- Tree and stump removal and lawn aerating.
- Gutter cleaning, landscape and bed maintenance.
- Painting and general exterior repair.

“We offer a lot of services,” he said. “I like to be a one-stop, full-service business. I want to make sure each customer is satisfied.

I try to be observant to what each customer needs.”

A resident of Amherst and 2005 graduate of Amherst Central High School, Reinhart is also an alumnus of Canisius College. In May, he earned a second degree in automobile technology from Erie Community College. Reinhart said pursuit of the degree has further assisted him in knowing how to maintain and fix equipment when necessary.

“I wanted to make sure I keep learning to help the business,” he said. “I attend seminars to keep my knowledge up and further my professionalism.”

Reinhart said he is glad that he was able to increase his list of customers to the point that he could create his own business.

“I slowly built this business over time,” he said. “I used to do this part time; now I am able to do it full time.”

Reinhart said he always strives to do thorough, detailed work on whatever project his customer needs completed.

“I try to be quick, but also, when it comes down to it, I would rather spend more time there to pay attention to all of the details. You’re getting the whole treatment with us.”
